ARE YOU MISSING THE THRILL

of seeing these long-loved favorites in YOUR garden? So many visitors, in going thru our fields will stop and exclaim over some beautiful bloom that would gain recognition in any flower show. Usually they are much surprised to learn that the variety has been on the market for years, and may be had for a very small fraction of a dollar!

Naturally, the new introductions are interesting, too, tho' many of them are greatly over-rated and most of them are discarded and forgotten in a few season's time. Some, of course, are REALLY good and destined to lasting fame with dahlia lovers; but these are a rare exception rather than the rule.

So, in the mad scramble for the new high-priced introductions, don't overlook the tried-and-true varieties that HAD to be good to gain such long-lasting popularity.

"FROST TONIGHT"

Apple-green west and an orange bar,
And the crystal eye of a lone, one star . . .
And, "Child, take the shears and cut what you will,
Frost tonight—so clear and dead-still."

Then, I sally forth, half sad, half proud,
And I come to the velvet, imperial crowd,
The wine-red, the gold, the crimson, the pied,
The dahlias that reign by the garden-side.

The dahlias I might not touch till tonight!
A gleam of the shears in the fading light,
And I gathered them all—the splendid throng,
And in one great sheaf I bore them along.

* *

In my garden of Life with its all-late flowers,
I heed a Voice in the shrinking hours:
"Frost tonight—so clear and dead-still" . . .
Half sad, half proud, my arms I fill.
